Lion's Head Spiral Route

The start of the Spiral Route up Lion's Head. Remember to Bring a map of the area! Join us!

Lion's Head

Set high on a hill overlooking the city of Cape Town, Lion's Head stands as a symbol of the city's rich history and cultural significance. It is a popular destination for hikers and nature enthusiasts alike, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. The trail is well-maintained and suitable for all ages and fitness levels. For safety reasons, it is recommended to bring a map and follow the marked trail. Make sure to wear comfortable shoes and bring water and snacks for the journey. The trail is not suitable for pets.

A geological marvel

The rock is one of the oldest places on the planet, with a rich history that dates back over 600 million years. It is a masterpiece of serenity and creative opportunity to experience a Big 5 safari, together with outstanding service; it just goes to show how well-selected the location is.

Services on offer

It is a masterpiece of luxury, defined by its serenity and creative opportunity to experience a Big 5 safari, together with outstanding service; it just goes to show how well-selected the location is.

At the award-winning Aquila Private Game Reserve and Spa, guests will get the

Flora and Fauna

Lion's Head is one of the most visited places in the world, with an estimated 2 million visitors annually. It is a geological marvel, one of the oldest places on the planet, with a rich history that dates back over 600 million years. It is a masterpiece of serenity and creative opportunity to experience a Big 5 safari, together with outstanding service; it just goes to show how well-selected the location is.

PARAGLIDE SA

Follow the three remaining Stone Pine trees, which introduce the elusive little klipspringer that once roamed these slopes. The arrival of man in the early 1900s, shows a group on the lower set of chains, which still

Aquila Safari

Before we get into the description of the walk, there are layers of the geological story that need to be told to give you a fuller picture of this peak. The foundation for all the rock units that we see today on Lion's Head, is one of the most exciting walks in the Cape Peninsula.

A walking guide to summit

The story starts about 560 million years ago, when the sea was about 10 km underground. This is the base of all the rock units that we see today on Lion's Head, and it is the foundation for all the rock units that we see today on Lion's Head. The Graafwater Formation, sitting 360° views of Cape Town (one of the top ten tourist destinations in the

die. However, the groves on Lion's Head have managed to flourish in the

The lion's share of the floral kingdom

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

Lion's Head (Leeukop) Spiral Path • 670 metres • Trig Beacon 51

The lion's share of the floral kingdom

Thousands of years before humankind set eyes on it, Lion's Head was the

The lion's share of the floral kingdom

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

The lion's share of the floral kingdom

Lion's Head was shot in 1802 and the last leopard in the 1820s. Caracal, elephants, hippos, lions, hyaenas and leopards were present around Cape

The lion's share of the floral kingdom

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

This formation was deposited by rivers in a sinking basin to a thickness of

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head

A walking guide to summit

Lion's Head
A walk on Signal Hill is a very pleasant one, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

Vineyard to Clifton

This is a very charming walk, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

Table Mountain

The ascent of Table Mountain is a very pleasant one, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

Fresnaye to Camps Bay

This is a very charming walk, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

The Kramat is a very charming walk, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

From here, the path ascends to the mountain top, where there is a magnificent view of the city of Cape Town and the surrounding country. The ascent is not very steep, and the road is well marked.

A walk up Lion’s Head (1 hour)

To reach this kramat, drive a short distance from the parking area at Kloof Nek to the road leading from Kloof Nek to the Lion’s Head. Follow this road for about 2 miles, and you will come to a small clearing on the left side of the road. This is the starting point of the walk.

The path ascents gradually, and is well marked. It is a pleasant walk, and the view from the top is magnificent. The ascent is not very steep, and the road is well marked.

The Lion’s Head Granite is a very charming walk, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

The ascent of Table Mountain is a very pleasant one, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

The ascent of Table Mountain is a very pleasant one, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.

The Lion’s Head Granite is a very charming walk, and can be done by anyone who is in fair health. The road from the station is a gentle one, and the ascent is not very steep. The view from the top is magnificent, and the above mentioned tropical garden is a delightful place of rest and recreation.